RICHMOND MARKETS. SATURDAY. February 7, 1880. Country Produce.

LONDON, February 7.—The Bive Book on Afghan affairs has been issued. General Roberts reports that he had a conversation with Yakoob Khan in October, 1879, in which the latter stated that the British Mission under Sir Neville Chamberlain was turned back by advice of the Russian Envoy at Cabul, M. Stolietoff, and that when Shere Ali quitted Afghanistan in December, 1878, he issued a firman to the authorities of Herat, declaring that M. Stolietoff had written to him as follows:

sian Ambassador to England, whether there was any fruth in the reports that the expedition from Caspian intended to occupy Meru. Count Schouvaloff said the expedition was directed against the Tekke Turcomans, and that he entirely disbelieved the existence among any section of Russian statesmen of a wish to advance upon Meru. On the 16th of July last M. De Gieve, of the Foreign Office, repeated these assurances to Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador to Russia, in the most positive terms.
